Tupper Lake, New York

The Tupper Lake brand is based on data and research resulting from a comprehensive, collaborative study, along with the vision shared by Tupper Lake's stakeholders and residents. Research conducted over the course of a year included a series of public meetings, a survey of residents, a survey of visitors, and a virtual focus group of local stakeholders.

The brand logo, colors, and fonts reflect the experiences and characteristics that make Tupper Lake a unique and compelling travel destination.

This guide is meant as a reference for the use of the Tupper Lake brand colors, fonts, and logo. The consistent implementation of these brand identity tools will help others quickly recognize, understand, and identify with the Tupper Lake experience.

Vision Statement

Tupper Lake has a clear vision statement for the future, as expressed in the community's 2007 Economic Development Strategy and 2013 Revitalization Strategy:

...Tupper Lake will be a nationally recognized center for education in environmental and natural sciences and a vibrant four-season Adirondack destination attracting families, businesses and visitors looking for a unique place balancing nature and technology, history and progress, work and play.

Tupper Lake is characterized by ample waterways and accessible mountains. This natural landscape is complemented by a cultural landscape comprised of authentic small-town businesses, natural science institutions, and rich heritage. As a result of research and public meetings, the primary elements that are associated with Tupper Lake can all be connected with one overarching concept: Tupper Lake is a place of authentic connection and discovery.

Through the course of the brand image study it was revealed that one of Tupper Lake's strongest attributes is the unique opportunity it provides both residents and visitors alike to connect with and learn about nature.

The Tupper Lake brand is built on four key concepts: authenticity, nature, connection, and discovery.

Connect

Tupper Lake is a community of real, hard-working, creative, and adventurous people who thrive in their natural surroundings, and it has been ever since its founding as one of the highest-producing lumber communities in the world.

Whether over coffee in a local diner at the break of dawn, or a cold beer at the end of a long day, travelers will find it easy to connect with locals as they share stories, experiences, and advice.

Discover

Tupper Lake is a center for learning via both self-guided discovery and today's version of the classic Adirondack guide. The Wild Center, the Adirondack Public Observatory, and professional paddling and hiking guides all support learning about the Adirondacks and its surroundings. Tupper Lake is a place for discovering the natural environment, authentic culture, seemingly limitless recreational opportunities, and the secrets of the dark skies overhead. With accessible trails, rich heritage, and real people who live and work here, Tupper Lake is a natural place to connect and discover.

The font “Boutique Script” communicates an intimate, personal touch, like a journal entry or hand-scrawled notes on a map.

In 1890, Mayor Joe Gokey, a prominent and colorful local businessman, was asked about the population of Tupper Lake. His unique response, “Mostly spruce and hemlock,” has carried on through the years in many different forms.

The hemlock cone, with its scales beginning to open, signifies not only the natural environment and rich heritage but also the seeding of a bright future for Tupper Lake.

TUPPER LAKE

This typography can be arranged in several ways, depending on the situation.

TUPPER

LAKE

Creating a brand as unique as Tupper Lake required a typeface that was unique to the community. Tupper Lake is presented in a completely custom, hand-designed typography. The letters are solid and elegant. The descenders of the letters R and K represent the movement of water. The shape of the U is reflected in the shape of the A to give the typography balance.

Effort

From work boots to hiking shoes, this tan color ties the hardy nature of Tupper Lake to its abundance of outdoor experiences.

Heritage

Red is traditionally recognized as a stimulating color that encourages action, enthusiasm, and confidence. This red accent provides a splash of color and alludes to Tupper Lake's rich history.

Part of the uniqueness of Tupper Lake is its wide-open views by day and dark skies by night. This makes it an ideal place to watch sunsets, as mountains reflected in the water provide a beautiful frame for the sun's last rays. Through the focus groups and open ended responses in the brand image survey, this observation proved to be a common conclusion.

The skyline within the text uses two tones to depict the view from Tupper Lake Municipal Park looking west over Raquette Pond, as the sun sets behind Mount Arab.

The hexagon is one of the many geometric shapes that occurs in nature. It is often associated with bees and their co-operative, hard-working nature. Tupper Lake is a strong community due to its residents rising together to undertake massive community projects over the years. The hexagon used in the logo is intended to represent both these past and future community-driven initiatives.

Here it is used to give the logo a cohesive feel (left) and in an icon with the logomark (below).

adirondacks, usa

The inclusion of the adirondacks, usa brand with Tupper Lake branding ties Tupper Lake to the regional brand, indicating its place as part of the Adirondacks, a name that is known as an important visitor attractor and international destination.
